

Infranity appoints Louis-Roch Burgard as Managing Director and Co-Head of Equity Investments

Paris, November 16th, 2022 - Louis-Roch Burgard has been appointed Managing Director and co-head of Infranity's Equity team, which currently consists of six experts based in London and Paris.

Infranity is an asset management company specialized in sustainable infrastructure investment. It is part of the Generali Investments ecosystem of asset management companies. The company currently comprises 45 professionals and manages more than €7 billion of assets under management invested in debt and equity. Through its investment strategies, Infranity allows its investors to benefit from the resilience of the infrastructure asset class, its long-term stable returns and its ability to contribute to sustainable development.

Philippe Benaroya, CEO of Infranity, said: "We are delighted to welcome Louis-Roch Burgard, a well-known figure with a wealth of operational experience in the infrastructure sector. His knowledge of the industry and its players will enable us to strengthen our origination, execution and asset management capabilities for our equity investments. His arrival is part of the team's dynamic strengthening process, which has been underway for several months. It is an undeniable asset for our future projects and an important source of new perspectives."

Louis-Roch Burgard: "I am delighted to join the Infranity team. Innovative projects will become even more abundant in the infrastructure sector than in the past, in order to meet the key challenges facing our societies, such as energy issues, decarbonization, sustainable mobility and the well-being of our fellow citizens. Infranity's dynamism, growth and strong ESG commitment were decisive in my choice. I am pleased to be part of this adventure and to contribute to the team, which have impressed me with their enthusiasm, drive and relationships"
